Lying on one of the most beautiful and evocative stretches of beach in Salento, in the heart of the marine reserve of the same name, its name is inspired by the island known as "della Malva " that emerges a few hundred meters from the beach of the complex. The geographic location of the resort in relation to the most important tourist centers in the area, make the village suitable for all clients who intend to combine a valuable sea stay , marine and historical-landscape excursions to discover Salento.
