Program:

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3 - BRATISLAVA

Meeting of participants at the agreed place and time and departure to Padua by shuttle service. Upon arrival meet the chaperone and the rest of the group and set off for the trip by motor coach. Stops for refreshments and free lunch are provided along the way. In the late afternoon we reach Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia, where we have dinner.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 4 - BUDAPEST

In the morning we visit Bratislava admiring the exteriors of the most famous buildings, including the Cathedral, palaces related to Mozart and Beethoven and the Danube Bridge. We then pass through the Main Square, the Jewish and Protestant quarters, and enjoy the view from the castle. After free lunch we leave for Budapest. After dinner, it is possible to join an optional boat ride on the Danube River to admire the illuminated city while sipping a drink. Possibility of optional excursion: boat ride by night in Budapest

FRIDAY, JANUARY 5 - BUDAPEST

We devote the morning to a guided tour of Buda Hill, the old medieval part where we find the Fortress and Matthias Church, the scenic Fishermen's Bastion and the Royal Palace whose exterior we admire. After free lunch, the tour in Budapest continues to the Pest area, where Roosevelt Square, Andrássy Avenue, Heroes' Square and St. Stephen's Basilica are located. An optional dinner can be attended in the evening. Optional excursion option: Typical dinner with music and folk show

SATURDAY, JANUARY 6 - GODOLLO-BUDAPEST

The morning is devoted to an excursion out of town, beginning with a visit to Grassalkovich Castle in Gödöllo, the Baroque holiday residence of Franz Joseph and his wife Sissi. We then return to Budapest where we have free lunch. In the afternoon, the visit continues to the Opera House. We have dinner in the evening.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 7 - BUDAPEST-RETURN

we begin our journey back to Italy. There will be stops for refreshments and free lunch on the way back. We arrive in Padua in the afternoon and continue to our home town by shuttle service.
