Mantua: discovering Palazzo Te and its history

Palazzo Te is a residence designed in 1525 by Giulio Romano, a pupil of Raphael, for Federico II Gonzaga; considered one of the most beautiful historic villas in our country, today, in addition to preserving its precious cultural heritage, it has become a landmark for the city of Mantua, which has made it an art hub.

The Villa of leisure and recreation, a kind of "representative villa," which in the past was intended for lavish receptions and secret amorous gatherings.

Be amazed by Falling Hall of Giants and Hall of Cupid and Psyche, and discover the rich history behind this place.
