Discover, Como

Private transfer from Milan to Como. Meeting with the local guide and guided tour. Walking itinerary to discover the city and its monuments, through the different historical periods that characterize its appearance. Como, the capital of the lake, surrounded by hills and mountains, lies at the tip of the southwestern branch. It houses numerous artistic monuments from different historical periods. This itinerary includes the medieval walls that surround the historic center. As we stroll through the ancient streets in the heart of the city, we can admire beautiful Romanesque and Baroque churches, piazza Volta and piazza Duomo with a charming old town hall building and its characteristic bell tower. At the end of the city tour, lasting about 3 hours, transfer for a mini boat cruise on the lake from Como to Bellagio (scheduled service) to admire the magnificent villas and gardens. Stop in Bellagio for lunch and time at disposal for a pleasant walk in this town. Return to Como in the late afternoon and private transfer to Milan. Possibility to make the mini cruise also from Como to Varenna, or Villa Balbianello and Villa Carlotta. Possibility to customize the excursion by renting a private boat with driver or renting a motorboat.
